1. The Movimento Carioca pela Paz (Rio de Janeiro Peace Movement - MCPP)¹ has virtually ceased activity. The regular Monday-night meetings which used to be held at the MCPP Headquarters, rua do Carmo, 6, room 912, have not been called for the last three months because of lack of attendance. Previously an average of 30 persons used to attend these meetings each week, but now only four or five persons appear for them. The persons who do come are primarily Communist Party members and not "the innocents" and sympathizers whose attendance is preferred by MCPP leaders.
2. On the other hand, the Federacao da Juventude Brasileira (Brazilian Youth Federation - FJB)² is more active than ever. The regular weekly meetings of the FJB are very well attended, and on most evenings the FJB club-rooms at rua da Carioca, 30, 1st floor, are filled with young people playing ping pong and cards.
